Pater Noster (sung in Latin)

Jacob Handl
trans. and ed. C. F. Simkins

Our Father, who art in heaven:
Hallowed be thy name:
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth
as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation.
But deliver us from the evil one. Amen.

My God, How Wonderful Thou Art

Matthew 6:9-13a
arr. Oscar R. Overby

My God, how wonderful Thou art,
Thy majesty, how bright!
How beautiful Thy mercy-seat
In depths of burning light!

How wonderful, how beautiful
The sight of Thee must be,
Thine endless wisdom, boundless power,
And awful purity!

...Yet I may worship Thee.

My God, how wonderful Thou art,
Thou everlasting Friend!
On Thee I stay my trusting heart,
Till faith in vision end.

from the Scottish Psalter, 1615

Hymn*

O God, Our Help in Ages Past Ascribed to William Croft, 1708

Text from Psalm 90
Song Leader: Amy Shank, Master in Teaching

O God, our help in ages past,
Our Hope for years to come,
Our Shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal Home.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting, Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

Those who are able shall stand.*

O God, our Help in ages past,
Our Hope for years to come,
Be Thou our Guard while life shall last,
And our Eternal Home. Amen.

Academic Regalia

Academic regalia is a tradition dating from the Middle Ages, when long robes and hoods were everyday attire, designed to protect against the cold and drafts of medieval university halls. It remains the costume at some British universities.

The many variations in academic dress are not incidental, but are rich in meaning. Each costume represents both the degree held by the wearer and the institution that awarded it. While in Europe each university has been free to adopt whatever design it wishes, a considerable degree of standardization has been achieved in the United States. Some of the elements of the code of academic dress follow.

HOOD: The hood, which is draped down the back, carries more symbolic significance than any other part of the costume. The border, extending over the shoulders to meet in a "V" at the front, indicates by its colors the discipline in which the degree was earned. Colors for some of the faculties are white (arts, letters, humanities); cream (social science); dark blue (philosophy); light blue (education); scarlet (theology); pink (music); golden yellow (natural science); lemon (library science); drab (business, accounting); and sage green (physical education).

The lining of the hood, partly exposed, is in the colors of the university that granted the degree (for Whitworth, red and black). Doctoral hoods are longer than those of master's-degree recipients and have a wider border. Recipients of the bachelor's degree do not wear hoods.

GOWN: Black gowns are the rule, but a few universities use other colors. A doctor's gown is recognizable by three horizontal velvet bars on each sleeve, either in black or in the color of the discipline in which the degree was granted. Typically, a doctor's gown also has velvet panels down the front. The typical gowns for master's-degree and baccalaureate-degree candidates do not have decorated panels or sleeves.

CAP: The familiar hard-topped mortarboard, or "Oxford cap," has long been standard, but a soft tam is increasingly common. The tassels are usually black or the color of the discipline. The tassel on a doctor's cap is usually metallic gold.

The Banners

The banners carry the seals of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and Whitworth College. Designed for the 1988 Commencement by Professor Emeritus of Art Walter "Spike" Grosvenor and constructed by Grosvenor, his wife, Erlene, and Art Professor Barbara Filo, these banners are a permanent part of the Commencement exercises.

Clarifications

(1) Participation in Commencement and inclusion in the Commencement program do not guarantee official granting of a degree. The Graduate Office or specific degree program verifies completion of all coursework and degree requirements for master's-degree candidates. The Registrar's Office performs the same function for baccalaureate-degree candidates.

(2) The official document verifying degree completion is the Whitworth College transcript, signed and sealed by the registrar.
